

WCN Free e-Recruitment Breakfast Seminar Invitation

'Transformation in recruitment at Cambridgeshire Constabulary'

Venue Central London

Cambridgeshire Constabulary Go-Live with WCN Online Recruitment

In February 2009 Cambridgeshire Constabulary appointed WCN Plc as their e-Recruitment provider. Twelve months on Cambridgeshire Constabulary have embraced e-Recruitment, successfully improving productivity and enhancing candidate experience.

The constabulary employs around 1,400 officers and 200 Police Community Support Officers and 1100 police staff, to cover an area of over 3,500 km<sup>2</sup> and a resident population of around 0.7 million. The county has one of the fastest growing populations in the country and provides a variety of challenges for the force.

Sara Gibb – Recruitment Manager at Cambridge Constabulary talks about the changes e-Recruitment has made

- Events – how the Events module has helped manage and improve Police Officer applications
- Approval functionality – how line managers work together with HR to raise vacancies in the system
- Print-books – how Cambridgeshire anonymised and automated the process for collating information for PCSO, Staff, Specials and Police Officer screening
- Casa – how CASA police officer registration forms are completed through the ATS with a seamless integration

Charles Higgs – Managing Director of WCN Plc and Author of the government guide to e-Recruitment discusses 'Effective management of increased volumes of applications'.
